PUBLIC NOTICE

Opening of the New Brunswick Housing Authority
Section 8/Housing Choice Voucher, RAD and Public Housing Waiting Lists

Beginning June 1, 2020 at 8:00am, the New Brunswick Housing Authority will accept applications for their Section 8/Housing Choice Voucher, RAD, Public Housing and Senior 62 & Over / Disabled Programs.

The waiting lists will close on June 15, 2020 at 5:00PM EST.

These are federal government programs for low-income families providing affordable, decent, safe and sanitary housing and housing assistance. For the Section 8/Housing Choice Voucher Program, participants can find their own housing in the private housing market, within an affordable range, and pay a portion of the rent based on a percentage of their household adjusted income. The RAD, Public Housing and Senior 62 & Over Programs are site based assistance providing housing at several specific developments within the City of New Brunswick, NJ.

For more information and to apply online visit: www.nbnjha.org or visit www.gosection8.com and click on “Housing Authorities and Waiting Lists.”

For help with your online application, please contact GoSection8.com at 866-466-7328.

To complete a preliminary application, you will need to have the following information available at the time you are placing your application:

• Date of Birth for all Household Members
• Social Security Numbers for all Household Members
• Gross Income for all Household Members

Placement on these waiting lists does not indicate that you are, in fact, eligible for assistance. A final determination of eligibility will be made when you are selected from the waiting list. Incomplete applications will not be added to the waiting list. You may apply to any and all of these during the open application period.

If you are a person with disabilities that limit your ability to access the online application process, please contact the New Brunswick Housing Authority at 732-745-5157 Ext. 200 to request a reasonable accommodation. Applications are available for download at www.gosection8.com
